Ok, we can change the date. Here is Solomon's availability in March: 13, 16, 20, 25, 26. Just let me know what works best for you and Chief Settles.

Thanks,

Hi Katie,

I am working on this. Please note that I am on vacation in Florida on March 27 and the following week.

Hi Ms. Forbush,

Solomon asked me once again to get the deposition of Chief Settles scheduled in the above matter. We've arbitrarily chosen the date March 27, 2020 at 10:00. If you or Mr. Settles has a conflict with this date, let us know. Solomon is adamant on scheduling this deposition since we haven't received anything (to my knowledge) regarding the status of his health.

Thank you,

Katie Moore | Litigation Manager

Hi Ms. Forbush,

Happy new year! My apologies for not following up with you sooner, the holidays caught up with me, but it is my understanding you and Solomon were able to catch up a few weeks ago to discuss this. Can we please have a few potential dates to schedule Chief Settles' deposition?

Thanks in advance.

Hi Kathie,

I'm following up about scheduling Chief Settles' deposition. Solomon's availability has changed, and he could take this deposition on any of the following days, depending on the time: December 4, 6, 11, 20, 23, 26, 27, 30 or 31. He probably only needs an hour to 90 minutes. Discovery cutoff is 12/31, but I understand people often take time off during the holidays, so if Ms. Forbush is agreeable to scheduling Chief Settles' deposition after discovery cutoff, I can give you additional dates in January.

Thanks!

Hi Kathie,

Solomon would like to reschedule the deposition of Chief Settles in the Billy Norris case. Solomon is available 11/27, 12/3, 12/20, or 12/23. Please let us know what date works best for Ms. Forbush and Chief Settles.

Thank you,
